

29 March 1962

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Hearing before Senate Armed Services Committee -
General Carter's Nomination as DDCI

1. General Carter appeared before the Senate Armed Services Committee, in open session, as a witness with respect to his nomination as DDCI. Present from the Committee were:

Richard B. Russell, Chairman
John Stennis
Henry M. Jackson
Leverett Saltonstall

Margaret Chase Smith
J. Glenn Beall
Howard W. Cannon

General Carter was accompanied only by John S. Warner.

2. The Chairman opened the meeting with the comment concerning the responsible post for which the General had been nominated and then he asked General Carter to make any statement. General Carter utilizing a page of his biography sketched his background.

STAT

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

3. Senator Russell then commented on General Carter's excellent record and asked him about his intelligence experience.

STAT

Senator Margaret Chase Smith had no questions. All the other Senators present were laudatory of General Carter's background and experience and in particular noted that he had served under distinguished men with whom the members were well acquainted. The entire hearing lasted less than fifteen minutes.

4. Later in the day the Committee reported favorably to the Senate on General Carter's nomination as DDCI and his promotion to Lieutenant General. Since the Senate had already gone into recess until Monday, no vote will be taken in the Senate until at least next Monday.

STAT

STAT

JOHN S. WARNER
Legislative Counsel

cc: IG
DD/P
DD/I
DD/R
DD/S
Leg. C. Subject
Leg. C. Chrono.

OGC/LC:JSW:mks